First, the fabric is fed into the tube and into the toy maker.

2.

Next, the toys drop down onto the conveyer belt.

3.

Then, the toys are put into boxes.

4.

Finally, the robot brings the box to me.

First, the Machine is turned on. The shooters create the harps, toys, money and pancakes.

Next, the harps and toys land on the mat. A roller takes them away.

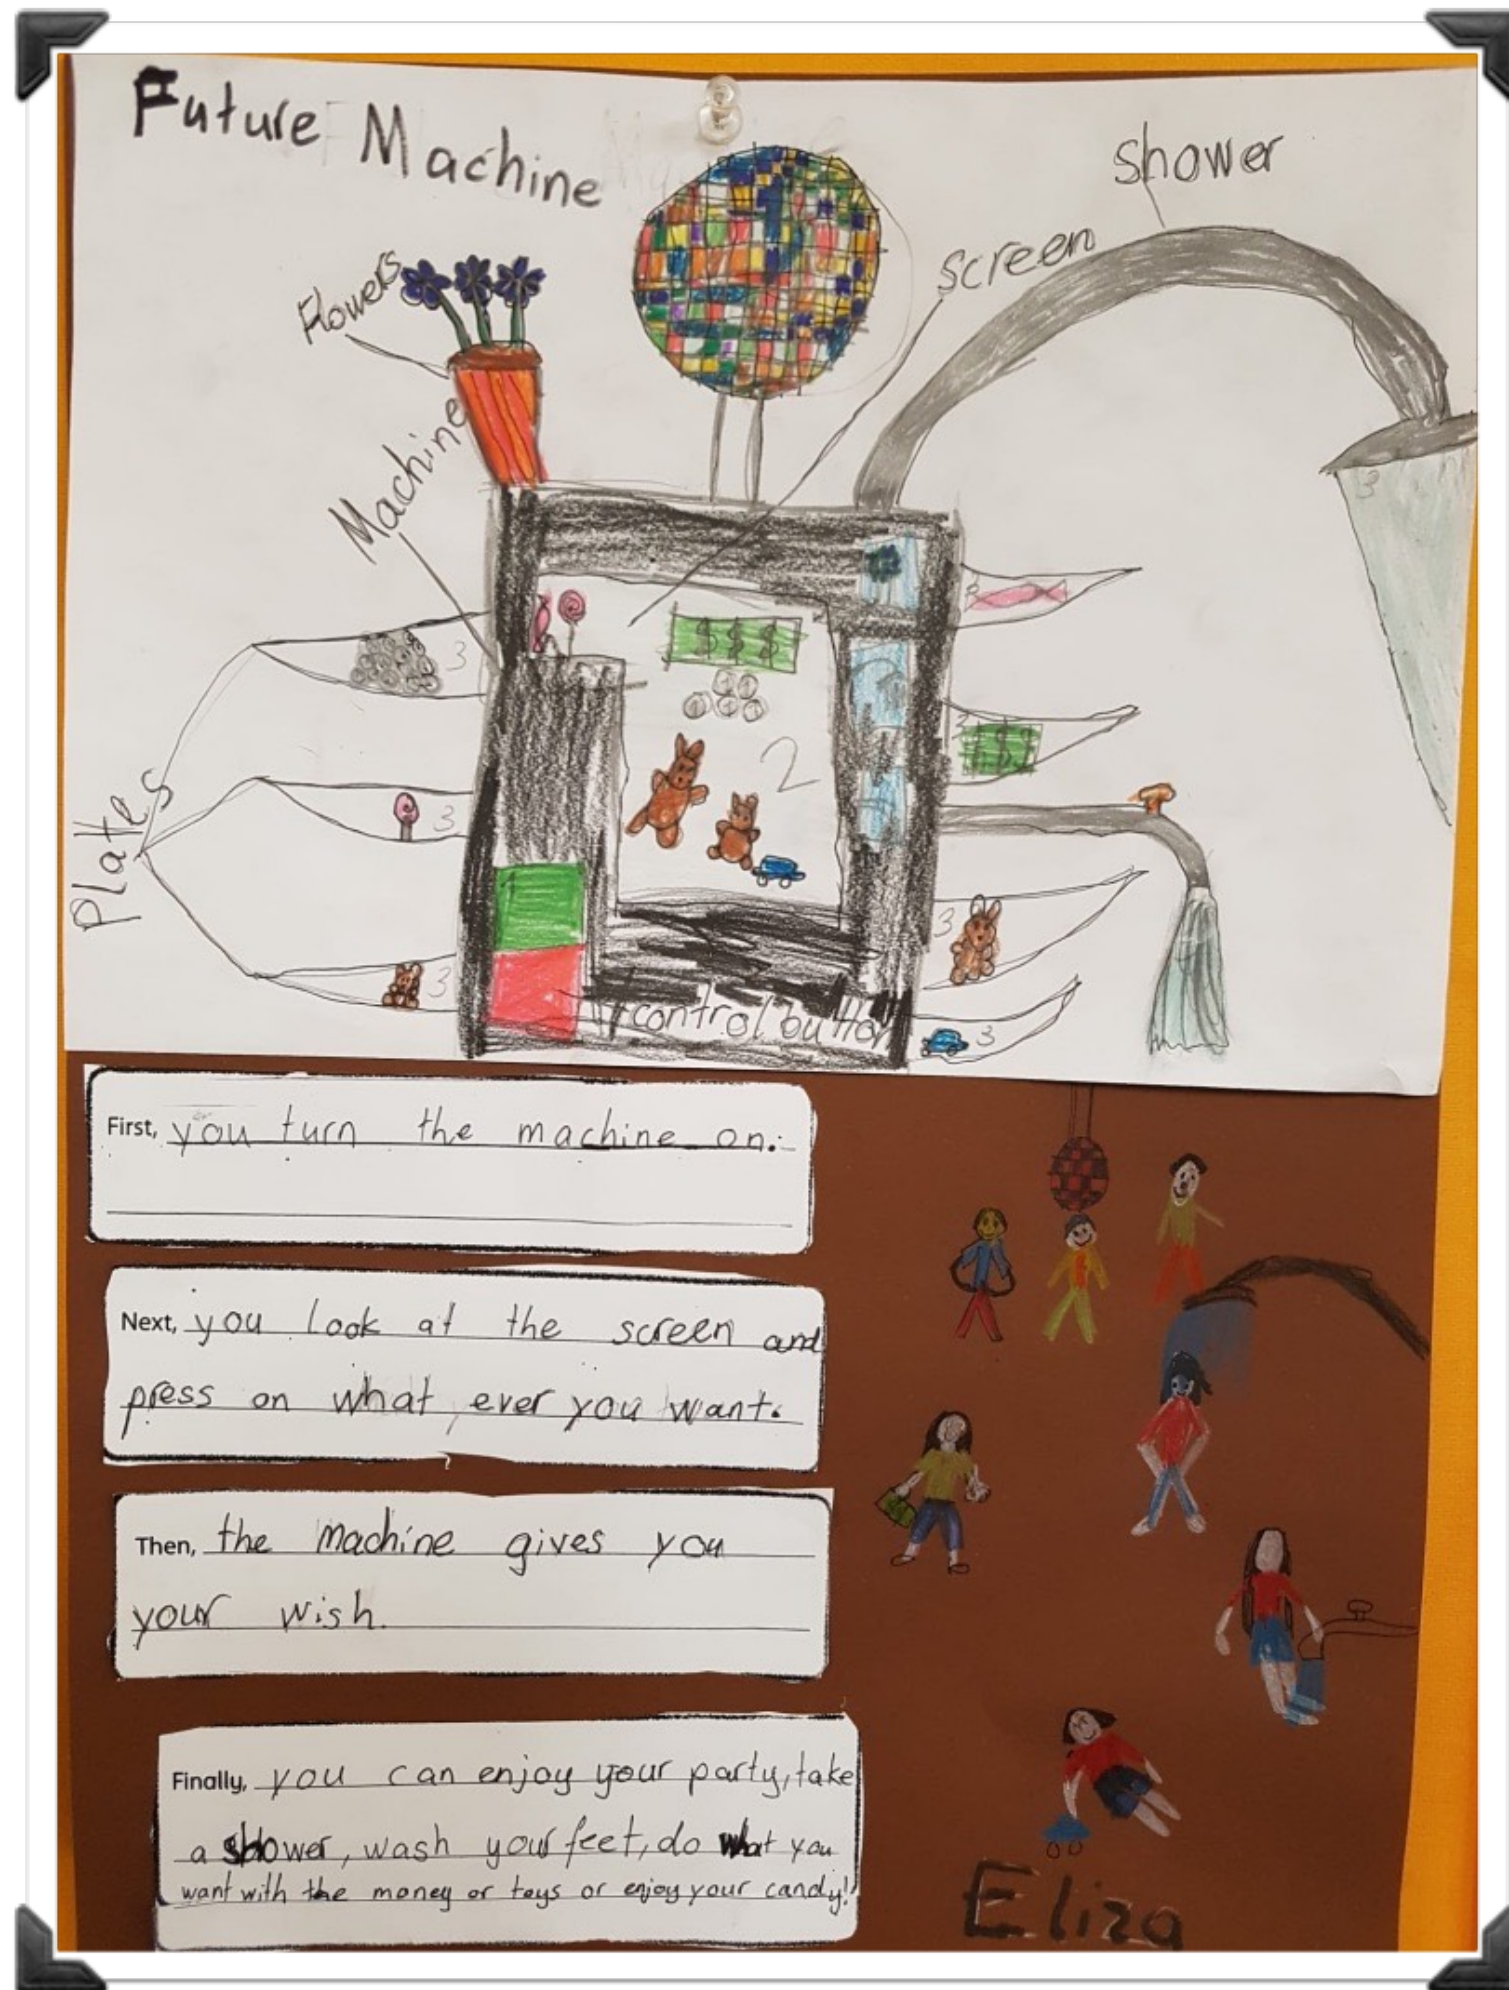

Then, the pancakes are made and fly onto the catcher, which brings them to the plates.

Finally, the money maker spits the money on to the conveyer belt. It takes them to be bagged.

Robo Clean

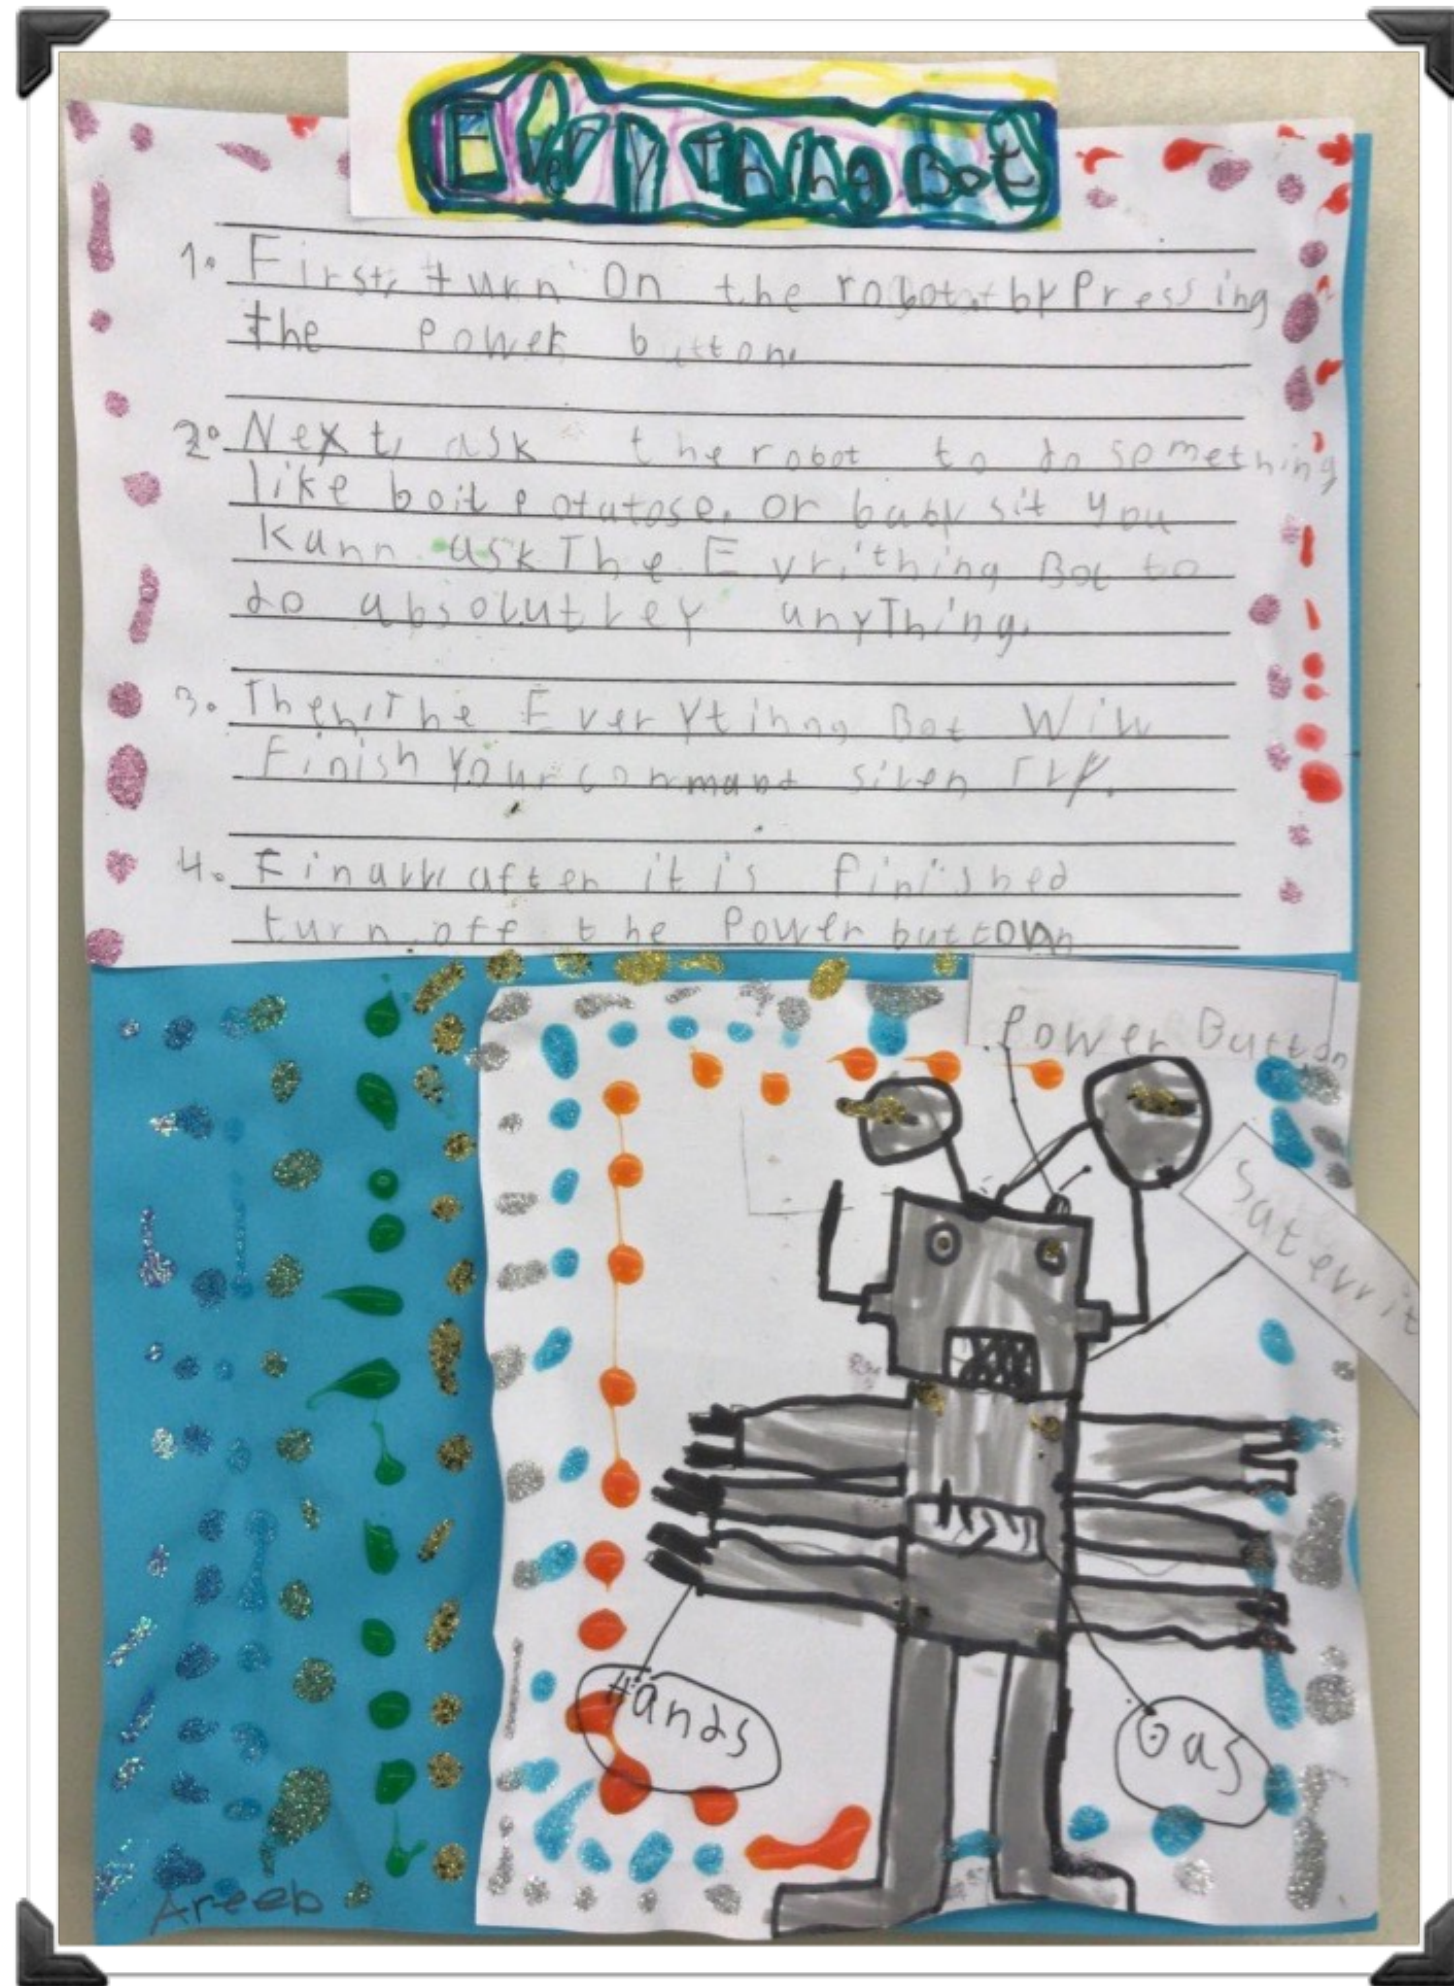

1. First, turn on the robot with the Power button.
2. Next, tell Robo Clean what he needs to do, like cook pasta.
3. Then, Robo Clean will do what you asked him to do. For example, he cooked the pasta and it was delicious!
4. Finally, press the button to turn Robo Clean off.

Postcards from Storm Ciara

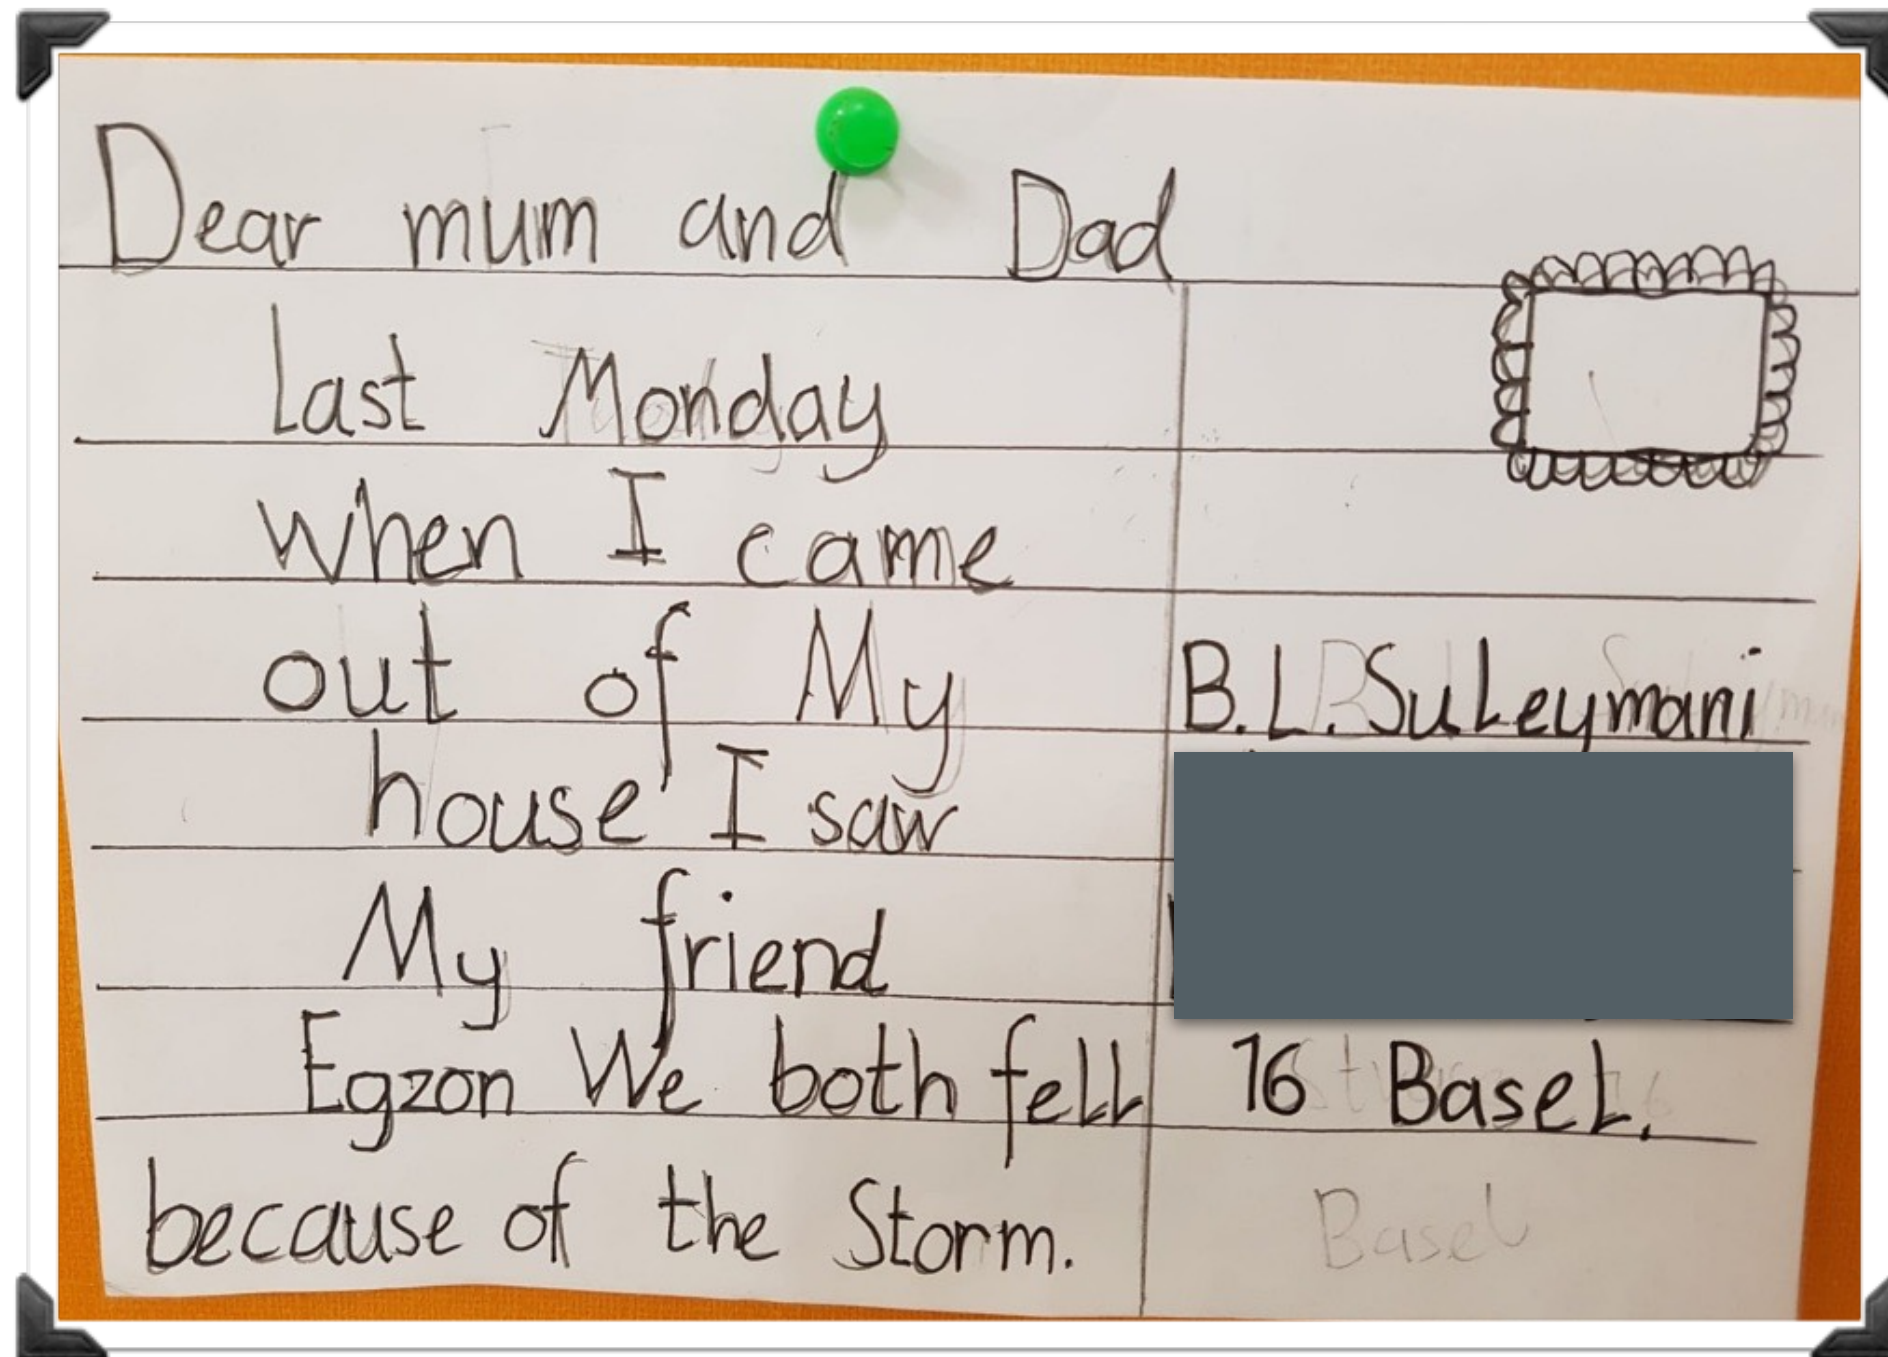

Level 3 students made postcards to send home to their families in early February after Storm Ciara lashed parts of Switzerland. Addresses have been blanked out.

DEAR MUMMY,

How are you? We had a huge storm herein

Basel. The trees were swaying back and forth and the wind was very strong.

We stayed indoors in school.

With love,

Dear Family

When I went to school

my hat almost

flew off my head.

It was also raining.

Dear Grandpa and Grandma. Love Adhrit

Last Tuesday it was windy and stormy and it was very strong then the trees were moveing.

Dear Family
on Sunday night a huge storm hit Basel. The wind roared and the rain fell. In some countries it snowed too.

A Hatchling's Song

I'm almost hatched! I'm almost hatched! I'm small, I'm wet

I'm almost hatched!

I'm small, I'm wet,

I'm not out yet.

I'm almost hatched!

I'm pecking hard,

I'm pecking hard,

I'm tired, I'm weak,

It hurts my beak.

I'm pecking hard.

My head's outside,

My head's outside

the moon is bright -

the world's so white!

My head's outside.

I'm really hatched,

I'm really hatched.

At last I'm free

Hey Dad it's me!

I'm really hatched.
