The Story of Mr. White

By Raphael (Level 7)

The story of Mr White

RA

Mr white is a snow man. he lives in Berlin with his wife, Mrs white and his two children, Sister white and Brother white. Mr white worked in a factory that produced cans of fake snow.

Christmas was coming and Mrs white was getting the tree ready. "I'm home!" said Mr white as he came into the house. "Papa!" said brother white happily. "Hello!" said a deep voice behind Mr white. Mr white saw the police man. "I'm sorry, Mr white, but you have to go away." "Why?" asked Mr white. "You are a monster!" said the police man firmly.

Mr white can't fight the police man, because he is merely made out of snow. "OK," said Mr white very sadly. The police man left.

Mr white told his family that they had to move. "Where will we go?" asked Mrs white. "I don't know," answered Mr white. "I know!" said Sister white. "We can go to England, London." "good idea," said Brother white.

"Yes, let's go!" said Mrs white. The next morning, Mr White's boss was at the door. He fired Mr white for accidentally making a spray can of paint. Three days later they were all on a train going to London. At 9:00pm they made it to London. It was gorgeous. All the lights, all the shops, and all the trains. They all went to their new house. It was in the country. It took about one day to get settled in the new house. The new house had four floors. On the ground floor is the kitchen, Mr White's office, the living room and the door to the basement. Brother White's bedroom was so big! And the car was red! One year later, Mr White had to join the British military. Mr White said good bye to his family and went to his bomber. In the night, Mr White flew over Berlin. When he was over the fake snow factory, he didn't drop a bomb, instead he dropped all of his fake snow and said "here ya go!" and the fake snow went down the chimney and blew up the factory.

Mr. Snowman

By Vedant (Level 7)

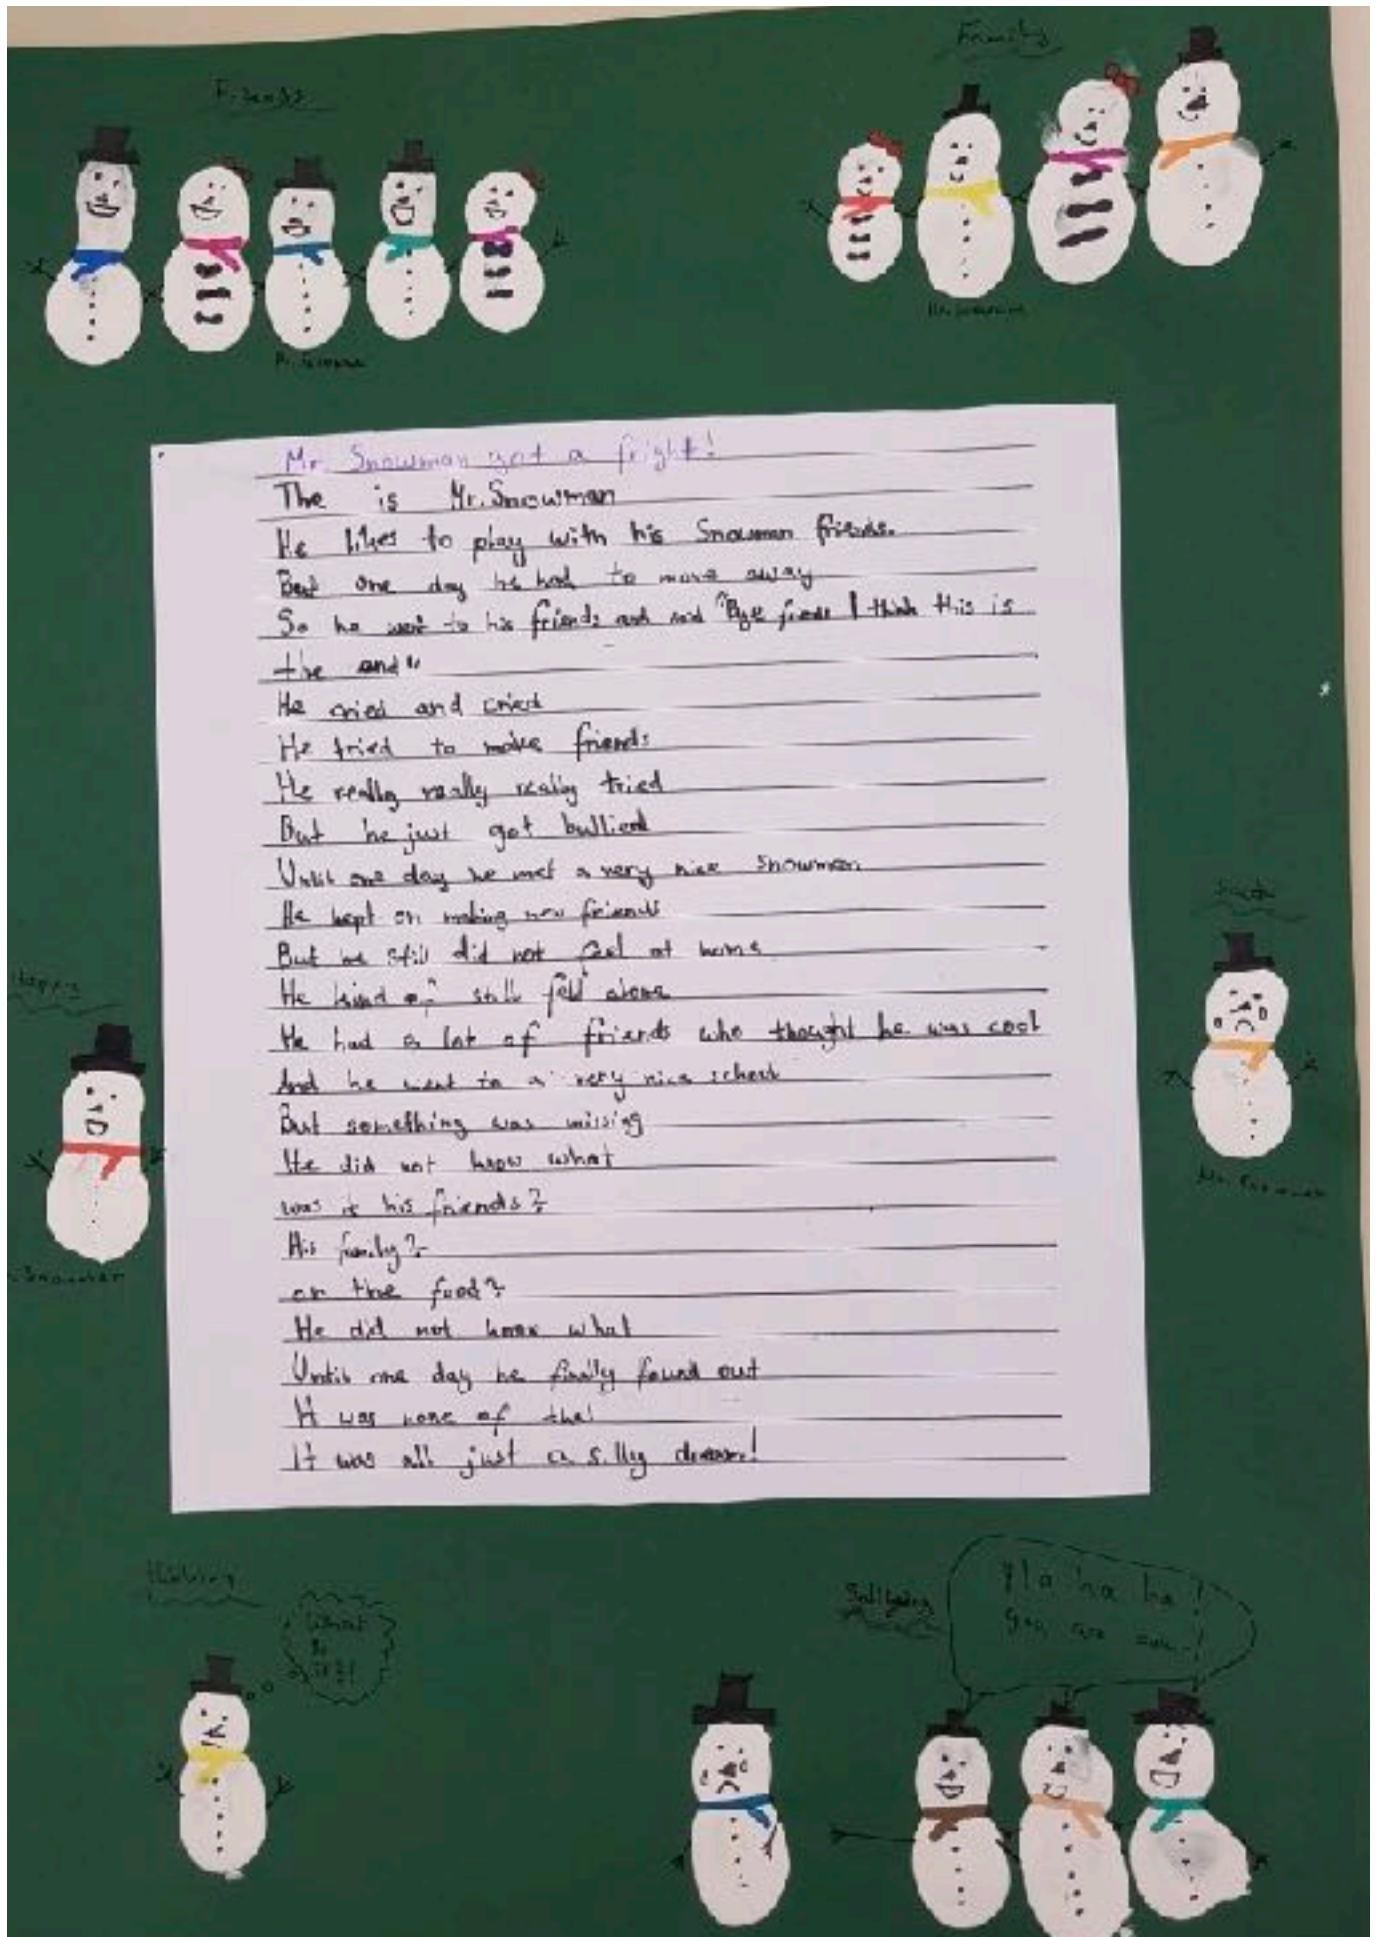

Mr. Snowman

One day, Mr. Snowman was coming home from work when "On no!" he shouted. "It's summer!" Mr. Snowman was worried, because snowmen can't live in the summer! It's way too hot! They'll melt away! So before anyone could melt away, he went to space and put a gigantic blanket over the sun! And without the sun it was always winter, but he realized that it was too dark, so he made a very big light bulb, powered by heat next to the sun. So with the sun's heat, the bulb stayed on and he controlled the bulb with a remote control. As a reward for saving the snowmen he got an Xbox ONE X. The next day, he was playing games, when they had a power cut, and there was only one person responsible for it! Ralph the snowman. So to teach him a lesson he gave him an upper-cut so hard, that he flew to space! Mr. Snowman then fixed the power cut and lived happily ever after. Mr. Snowman was now officially a super-hero! He did tons of fun stuff, like go to Atlantis, travel to another dimension and even get flushed down a toilet! But that's all for another story! Anyway, Mr. Snowman just got an idea. He's gonna team up with two other super-heroes and make a team called "Super Christmas Club." The three super-heroes are: Mr. Snowman, Rudolf the red-nosed reindeer and Santa Claus!

Her friends were already there. She said I have enough money for all of us, that we can buy something. Great thank you. I have the best friends on the whole world. Thank you they said "Welcome" the snowman answered. Let's go. Yes let's go. So they went.

The Longest Journey
One winters day two children built me and my cousin. In the night I went off to the city to get my cousin a present.
At first the journey was fine
but in the middle of the ~~jour~~ journey I was squashed by some horses and I nearly fell off a cliff. Then I finally reached the city and I could buy the christmas hat for my cousin. Just as I was leaving the city center and I met some other snow men. They were complaining about the city being much too loud so etc.

I invited them to come with me. The journey
back was much shorter,
because I had some company and someone to talk to. When I arrived home my cousin was very happy and we all lived in the garden happily ever after.

Lost & Found

By Alex (Level 3)

It was a lovely day. There was a knock on the door. It was my mom. She came home from shopping. She brought a penguin picture home. That gave me an idea and I went to Antarctica with a boat. Then I ^{saw} something black. Then it got bigger and bigger. It was a lot of penguins. But one was sad and I didn't know why it was sad. I went to the penguin and I asked the other penguins why the penguin was sad but the penguins had no idea. So we got into the really cold water to get some fish. But the sad penguin stayed on the land. I went back home I got a scanner and I went back to Antarctica. The other penguins said the penguin was sad because he can't swim. I told them my scanner can turn into a raft. The sad penguin tried it out and I went back home.

Lost & Found

By Aidan (Level 3)

It was a lovely sunny day. There was a knock on the door. It was a sad penguin. The boy asked him where he came from. The penguin ignored him. The boy went to the zoo to ask the zookeepers if they knew the penguin. They told him penguins come from the South Pole. He had an idea. He went to the harbour and saw a ship just like the Titanic. They snook onto the ship. The boy saw the South Pole out the window. They jumped out the window and swam to the South Pole. They hugged each other and said bye.

Luckily an airplane was flying by. He took a grabin hook and flew all the way home.

It was a lovely sunny day. There was a knock on the door. I opened the door. A penguin was standing there. I said "Hello penguin where did you come from?" I asked but the penguin said nothing. I asked every house, but nobody knew. I asked all the shop's. I looked at Book's to see where he comes from. It said the South Pole. "Okay" I said. "We go with ^{acur} on a ferryboat." I said. "We got to the Island." The penguin said nothing. "On the Island there were no penguin's." I said. "My daddy can not speak." The penguin has now 10 friends now. In the end he stayed on the island in the in the little house with his ten new friends.
